

THE CARTER REPORT

SERGEI'S STORY

“

My name is Sergei.

I live in Nizhni Novgorod, Russia. During the collapse of the Soviet Union, I went to work for Russian Mafia. The pay was good, but I was empty inside. It was also a little bit dangerous. Russian police sometimes as bad as Mafia. Then preacher from our former big enemy America came to our city. He was Australian and I thought I will go to hear this person. Maybe he will tell us something good, to get us out of the mess we have made.

Many others came to hear this John Carter, I found it hard to get seat in our big Palace of Sport. People everywhere pushing and shoving. When he started talking, gangsters started throwing smoke bombs on the stage. He ignored and people cheered. I cheered, I liked this man.

He told us about God, the best news I had ever heard. He preached from the Bible, and my heart cried out. He pointed to huge painting of Christ on cross and said, “Here is your God, O Russia! He loves you!” I thought fast beating heart would burst. He asked, “How many of my dear Russian friends will now accept Jesus as Lord and Savior?” I ran down to front of Palace of Sport. Many others running. Some crying.

Later, as thousand were baptized in Volga River, I too was baptized. The water was cold, but my heart was hot. No more Mafia job for me, I am now new man. That happened in 1992. I still follow this Jesus. I go to church with my family. We are now happy people.

Thank you, dear American people, for sending this preacher man John. Slava bogu!
